St. James's, May 9.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted from Ireland to the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, were, in his Lordſhip's Abſence, preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Proteſtant Freeholders of the County of Gallway.

An humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and the reſt of the Gentlemen of the County of Roſcommon.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury Juſtices of the Peace, and other Proteſtant Freeholders of the County of Mayo.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Sligoe.

An humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other the Proteſtant Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Leytrim.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Clergy of the County of Longford.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, Freemen, Freeholders, and Clergy of the Town and County of the Town of Gallway; as alſo of the Sheriffs and Grand Jury, aſſembled at the General Aſſizes held for the County of the ſaid Town, the 29th Day of March 1715.

All which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Vienna, May 5. On the 2d of this Month Ibrahim Aga arrived here. 'Tis generally believed that his Commiſſion goes no farther than only to Compliment the Emperor on his Acceſſion to the Imperial Dignity; and therefore the Preparations for ſuſtaining a War in Hungary, if need be, are not at all ſlackened; but a conſiderable Number of Forces will be ready to take the Field at a ſhort warning, and a very fine Train of Artillery is actually provided. Prince Eugene of Savoy deſigns to give the Aga Audience on the 7th Inſtant. Prince Trautſon has begun to act as Preſident of the Bank. Count Molar, Vice-Preſident of the Chamber of Finances, diſpatches all Affairs relating thereto, the Preſident Count Staremberg no longer concerning himſelf with them; and 'tis ſaid, he has prevail'd with the Emperor to accept of his Reſignation of that Employment, which he has been ſoliciting ever ſince the eſtabliſhing of the Bank. The Chamberlain of the Elector of Trier arrived here Yeſterday, and the Elector himſelf is hourly expected.

Ratisbon May 6. On the third Inſtant a Petition of the Company of Lace-Weavers at Augsburg was preſented to the Dyet in behalf of themſelves and others of that Trade againſt the working of Galloons, Ribbons, Ferret, &c. by Mills, and the Importation of them ſo worked from Foreign Countries. The Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel having propoſed the making a publick Law of the Empire againſt all Duels and Rencounter under the ſevereſt Penalties, the King of Pruſſia's Miniſter have likewiſe received Inſtructions to promote ſo uſeful a Deſign with all imaginable Earneſtneſs. The Saxon Envoy Monſieur Boſen is returned from paying his Maſter's Compliments to the Elector of Bavaria at Munich.

Copenhagen, May 7. Colonel Meyer one of the King's Adjutant Generals, arrived here the 2d Inſtant from Berlin, and will be diſpatched back again to Morrow. The Buſineſs he came about was very acceptable to this Court; and 'tis now ſaid that an Alliance between our King and his Pruſſian Majeſty is as good as concluded. 26 Braſs Cannon of 24 Pound Ball, 26 of 18 Pound Ball, and 24 of leſſer ſize, as alſo 26 large Mortars, are drawn out of the Arſenal here, in order to be tranſported to our Army in Holſtein. The Day of the King's Departure for that Dutchy is not yet certainly known; but 'tis not doubted his Majeſty will be going before the end of next Week at furtheſt. Four more large Men of War are fitting out here with all Expedition, to reinforce the Squadrons which we have already at Sea.

Hambourg, May 14. Letters from Poland relate that 6000 Turks were arrived at Chocim, and were ſet to work on the Fortifications of that Place. They were expecting there 30000 Janiſaries and 10000 Spahis, as alſo the Cham of the Tartars with all his Forces in order to go upon ſome Expedition. The King of Denmark in Conſideration of the good Conduct and Bravery ſhewn by Vice Admiral Gabel in the late Engagement with the Swedes at Sea, has given him a Sword having its Hilt ſet with Diamonds to the Value of 4000 Crowns, made him a Gentleman of his Majeſty's Bed Chamber, and diſcharged Debts amounting to 30000 Crowns with which his Eſtate was incumbered. The Captains of the Ships of his Squadron have likewiſe been rewarded with Preſents to the Value of 2000 Crowns each,
